

PROGRAMME	ACTIVITIES SUPPORTED	BENEFICIARY	BASIC CONDITIONS	AMOUNT OF CONTRIBUTION/ GRANT
TIP www.mpo.cz	Support to research and development (R&D) projects leading to production that is more efficient, environmentally friendlier, safer, more flexible etc.	Businesses, research organisations	Programme objectives include to develop new materials and product, innovative technologies and new information and management systems (focus on the future, economic relevance, applicability of solutions, effectiveness of objectives)	Subsidies go to applicants that use their own staff to do at least 50% of the work on project solution. Capital expenditures (in non-current intangible assets) should not exceed 20% of total approved costs
Operational Programme "Research & Development for Innovation" www.msmt.cz	Support to equipment in research establishments, building new research establishments, increasing the capacity of tertiary education	Universities, research institutions, legal entities	The purpose is to strengthen R&D and the innovative potential of the Czech Republic and, in particular, encourage the development of universities, research establishments and their cooperation with the private sector	Subsidies up to 100%
Operational Programme "Education for Competitiveness" www.msmt.cz	Support to and development of the society of education, aimed at strengthening the competitiveness of the Czech Republic	Schools and other educational institutions, research institutions, municipalities and regional authorities	The purpose is to develop and improve initial education, innovation in tertiary education, links with R&D, support to lifelong education	Subsidies up to 100%
Operational Programme "Prague Competitiveness" www.oppk.cz	Support to efforts to improve competitiveness of Prague as a dynamic city, to improve the quality of the urban environment and to develop the city's innovation potential	Prague, public transport railways, non-profit organisations, universities, research institutions	The purpose is to improve the availability of transport and telecommunications services, improve the environment and increase Prague's competitiveness	For public entities: up to 92,5%, for private entities: 90%
Operational Programme "Prague Adaptability" www.oppk.cz	Support to greater competitiveness and stronger adaptability and performance of human resources. Support to better approach to employment	Businesses, public administration, non-profit organisations, schools etc.	The purpose is to increase occupational mobility and adaptability, improve labour quality and productivity, support handicapped persons on the labour market, improve the quality of education and professional training	For public entities: up to 100%, for private entities: 75-80%
7 th EU Framework Programme www.tc.cz	Support is primarily focused on R&D projects in Europe	Legal entities and individuals	The purpose is to ensure international co-operation and achieve a high quality of research work in accordance with EU needs in the competitiveness area	Subsidies depending on the type of projects
Ministry of Education www.msmt.cz	Support to international co-operation in the R&D area	Legal entities and individuals	Programme COST, EUPRO, EUREKA, INGO, KONTAKT	Subsidies depending on the type of projects
Grant Agency of the Czech Republic www.gacr.cz	Support to and launching of public tenders in R&D to support basic research grant projects	Legal entities and individuals, research organisations	Objectives and methods of addressing the project are determined by those who propose the project and are responsible for it	Subsidies up to 100%
Technology Agency of the Czech Republic ALFA Programme www.tacr.cz	Support to and pursuance of co-operation between scientific and research institutions and private entities, aimed at a higher quality of applied research	Legal entities and individuals, research organisations	The purpose is to transfer new findings effectively to practise and to transfer the technologies quickly to the application sphere	Subsidies depending on the type of projects