In connection with the implementation of the requirements of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (hereinafter referred to as the “General Data Protection Regulation” or “GDRP”), we would like to make it known that the personal information of applicants are processed in connection with the process of providing support from the state budget and for the purposes of support in connection with the provision of investment incentives. Provision of applicants’ personal data is necessary for compliance with legal requirements and non-provision of such data can have the consequence of making it impossible to obtain funding from such support.

The legal basis for the processing of applicants’ personal data is the fact that this involves necessary processing for the purpose of fulfilling legal obligations arising from legal regulations at the level of the Czech Republic. In particular, this involves legal obligations arising from:

- Act No. 72/2000 Coll., on Investment Incentives and on the Amendment of Certain Acts
- Act No. 586/1992 Coll., on Income Tax, as amended
- Act No. 435/2004 Coll., on Employment, as amended
- Act No. 338/1992 Coll., on Property Tax, as amended
- Government Decree No. 515/2004 Coll., on financial support for job creation and financial support for retraining or training of employees within the framework of investment incentives, as amended
- Government Decree No. 596/2006 Coll., establishing the permissible state-aid intensity in cohesion regions of the Czech Republic, as amended

On the basis of this, applicants’ personal data can be transferred or made accessible only to persons, bodies or institutions that are granted such right by the above-mentioned documents, by the law or in the public interest. No automated decision-making shall occur in connection with the processing of applicants’ personal data. At the same time, applicants have the following rights:

- to demand access to their personal data
- to demand correction of inaccurate personal data (if the applicants believe that their personal data processed by the administrator are inaccurate)
- to demand restriction of the processing of their personal data
- to demand deletion of their personal data without undue delay
- to file a complaint with the supervisory body
- in the event of a breach of the security of applicants’ personal data that will result in a high risk of violation of the applicants’ rights and freedoms, the applicants will be notified of such fact without undue delay
Applicants can exercise their rights in relation to the administrator of personal data, i.e. the Investment and Business Development Agency CzechInvest, via the contact person for matters involving the processing of personal data, i.e. the Data Protection Officer – Lucie Jahnová (tel.: 296 432 422; e-mail: lucie.jahnova@czechinvest.org).

Transfer of data to external systems:

In connection with administration and with respect to the legal reasons for processing, personal data are automatically transferred to the following entities:

- Ministry of Finance of the Czech Republic
- The governing body, i.e. the Ministry of Industry and Trade of the Czech Republic
- Ministry of Labour and Social Affairs of the Czech Republic or, as the case may be, the Labour Office of the Czech Republic – Directorate-General
- Ministry of the Environment of the Czech Republic
- Ministry of Agriculture of the Czech Republic

This list of entities is not exhaustive. Beyond the described framework, it is possible, in the event that there is a relevant legal reason or if it is in the public interest, to transfer applicants’ data also to other entities that are not set forth in the above overview.
