“The visit to Czech companies was very fruitful and we have identified several opportunities at both the first- and second-tier levels. The preparation and support of CzechInvest were first-class. All suppliers were well-prepared and very open in their approach to Nissan Europe. Certainly they are considerable candidates for Nissan.”

Supplier Days

We have extensive experience with organizing supplier days for multinational companies. We have organized meetings of single foreign companies with several suppliers, as well as events for fifteen multinational firms and two hundred suppliers. The possibility of organizing supplier days is offered to all multinational companies operating in the manufacturing industry.

"The supplier day is an important milestone in building the local ecosystem of subcontractors and partner firms. The participating firms will have the opportunity to become not only suppliers for the most advanced turboprop aircraft engine to date, but also suppliers for the entire GE Aviation Group."
